MIKE AND BONITA - WELCOME BACK!

If you want to hear all about Mike and Bonita's trip to Sudan, Thailand and India please join them for stories over dessert on Monday, June 6, 7:30pm at 1367 Cottonwood Crescent in North Vancouver. Please contact Jocelyn at jopdah@telus.net by June 4th for approximate head count.

Leigh Wong from Just Potters/Just Work joins us today to talk of this mission that fosters dignified gainful work opportunities for people facing physical and mental challenges, homelessness and addictions. Leigh will be joined by Olga, one of the potters, who will talk of her own experiences. There will be pottery made by Just Potters for sale after church.

JustWork and JustPotters are also holding an event called Pottery-24: A Fundraiser. For 24 hours they will have a pottery marathon on the wheel to make pots, raise money, and raise awareness about JustPotters. They are looking for 100 Connectors who can find ten of their friends who would sponsor them for $1/hour to raise a total of $240, which would altogether raise $24,000 to continue to employ people with difficulties, to run the studio, and to buy a new kiln. Contact them if you would like to be a Connector. You will hear more about their celebration event on June 18th. For more information view thejustworkblog.blogspot.com and look for fliers on the Welcome Table.

August 12-14 - Creative World: An Arts and Justice Festival will be a grassroots celebration, festival camping-style, of God's heart for those on the margins and for justice. Combining worship, musicians, bands, speakers, workshops, discussion, and art around themes of justice, the vision is for a Greenbelt-type event that brings folks together from across the spectrum of faith and socio-economic backgrounds. They will gather in Mission, BC on Stolo Nation land for a weekend of music and conversation inspired by God's vision of justice and creativity. Invited speakers and musicians include: Shane Claiborne, Ched Myers, Cheryl Bear, Shad, Micah Bournes, Elaine Enns & more.

MISSIONS SUNDAY

We welcome Marnie Mitchell to share from Jeremiah 1 on the theme of "Watching and Waiting" and what it is to be First Nations, Christian, Canadian, and thoughtful. Marnie will speak to us as a Cowichan who grew up on and off of reserve, and who feels like she doesn't belong to either. But she knows where she does belong: as a daughter of the King, a wife of a good man, and a mom to two amazing daughters, all of whom have taught her a lot about patience, faithfulness, and grace. Her passion is to see how God will unfold restoration among her First Nation's people. Marnie and her husband Peter have worked with The Salvation Army for the past twelve years focusing on inclusion or what Marnie calls "a ministry of Others."

COWBOY CAMP

A number of our families, young people, and staff team returned this week from Timberline Ranch for Cap's annual family camp known affectionately by the kids as "Cowboy Camp".

Initial reports are that there was an excellent time of fun and friendship despite (or even because of the rain). We look forward to hearing some of their stories in the next couple of weeks.
