Welcome to CapChurch!

We are a community faithfully seeking God's shalom (flourishing and wholeness) in every sphere of life with passion for Christ and compassion for neighbour. We hope you find a warm welcome today—both from our good God, and from us.

Nashisa calls! Our 2018 team: Cindy Gleeson, Dena Gartner, Julie Evans, Julie Zimmerman, Lynda Shaw, Margo Sadler, Willie Perez and Lynn Perez ask for your prayers as they prepare for their May 30th trip to Uganda. CapChurch Finance Update

Thriving or Surviving: Conflict Sunday, April 29, 2018, 12:15-2:15pm Conflict. Some of us have it at work, in our marriage, with our children. Some of us in our extended family, with neighbours, church members, even friends. At times we handle conflict well. At other times we do not know what to do. Some even find conflict frightening. Sign up (rjkwilson@shaw.ca) by Tuesday, April 24 and join with Rod and Bev Wilson to explore this important subject in our second last Thriving or Surviving session. The last session is May 27, 2018 on the subject of controversy. (Rod Wilson)

2018 Friendship List are HERE!

The much awaited 2018 Friendship List are available at the Welcome Table. We want everyone who attends CapChurch regularly to have one (donations towards the $12/book cost are appreciated). Please send this Lynda at life@capchurch.ca if you would like to be included for 2019 and for the weekly capblast electronic bulletin.

Our April 7-8 Cap Men's 3rd Annual Retreat

Other than the drizzly weather, the men of CapChurch had a wonderful 30 hour retreat at Barnabas. We arrived by water taxi Saturday morning and were met with hot coffee& muffins. We heard the amazing Barnabas story including the miracle of finding water on the island that will supply the camp needs long into the future. Rod Wilson facilitated our group of 32 men in a discussion entitled "Money, Sex and Power." Hans Forssander, Dave Zimmerman and Eric Girardin responded with their personal perspectives which led to our lively group discussions. Matt Pierrot and Dave Zimmerman led our worship experience. The waterfront accommodation, gourmet meals and snacks at Barnabas were the surprise highlights for new guests. The men's "Evaluation Forms" raved about the weekend and the uniqueness of the teaching, discussion groups and the overall Keats Island ambience. We've penciled in early May 2019 for another Cap Men's Retreat! (Roger Hardy)

Baby Logan Luke and Joelle Coyle brought little Logan Keith Coyle home from the hospital last week and all is well. Please consider participating in the Cap tradition of providing several weeks of meals for the new mom and dad. Here is the

Lynda's Resignation

After serving as CapChurch's Administrative Assistant for almost five years, Lynda Shaw has decided it is time, in her words, to "pass the baton." We receive her resignation with sadness that our staff team will no longer benefit from her organizational skills, prayerful wisdom and servant heart. We also feel deep gratitude for the ways she has loved the church and God so well through her work, and provided stability to our team during a challenging season. Lynda's work with us will be finished up by early summer; her specific end date depends on several factors including when we are able to find and train her replacement. We appreciate your prayers for Lynda as she asks her heavenly Papa what comes next for her, and also for us as we consider next steps in terms of hiring. (Kim Pierrot)
