A Change of Roles

After serving for the last 2 and a half years as Chair of the Elders, I have asked to step back from the responsibilities of the Chair position. Thankfully, Brian Dean has agreed to step into the position, and the Elders have affirmed this change. Brian brings strong leadership skills, as well as a love for God and this community into his new role. I look forward to continuing to serve Cap as an Elder and look forward to supporting Brian in his leadership. (David Zimmerman)

After Nashisa

CapChurch's partnership with Food for the Hungry Canada and the beloved community of Nashisa, Uganda will come to an end when the village graduates to becoming self-sustaining, likely sometime in 2020. In light of this, we are beginning a conversation at Cap about what happens when our commitment to Nashisa comes to an end. We have an exciting opportunity to enter into a relationship with another village, and yet it is a significant commitment to enter into a long-term partnership, and not one we take lightly. Do we perhaps want to pursue a relationship with an FH community, but closer to home? We are taking some time to discern, with the expectation we will know one way or the other before our team leaves for Nashisa in May. Please pray along with us, and feel free to pass on any insights or questions to Andrea Smith. asmith3973@gmail.com)

(RE)INTRODUCING ALI NICHOLS!

We are excited to announce that Ali and her family will be back with us on Sundays for at least the next few months. Ali has accepted an interim position as our CapKids leader, working primarily with our Grade 1-3 group, and assisting John with the coordination of our other CapKids programs. Having served before as CapKids director (approximately 10 years ago), she brings a wealth of relevant experience, a link to the strong legacy of past CapKids programs, and a deep love for our community. Last year, Ali & Chris and their 4 wonderful children relocated to Squamish and are settling into their new community there. Together we have sensed God's leading in bringing our desires together at this point in time, and we are grateful for the ways that God continues to provide for our needs. Ali is looking forward to connecting with our kids and families and to engaging us as a whole community in the care of our children. Welcome (back) to the team, Ali! (John Colpitts)

SOUPER SUNDAY!

Sunday, May 6th right after the service, gather in Cappers home for a light lunch and rich fellowship.

Souper Sunday is simple. The host provides the soup for approx. 8-10 people (or less if you like). The guests bring salad, bread, cheese, drinks and light finger desserts.

We are needing approx. 10 potential hosts for Souper Sunday. If you would like host, please contact Lynda at life@capchurch.ca.

Watch for a separate special Capblast as well as an opportunity to sign up next Sunday, April 29, 2018. (children eat for free—how's that for simple and easy-peasy!)

Thriving or Surviving: Conflict

Sunday, April 29, 2018, 12:15-2:15pm

Conflict. Some of us have it at work, in our marriage, with our children. Some of us in our extended family, with neighbours, church members, even friends. At times we handle conflict well. At other times we do not know what to do. Some even find conflict frightening. Sign up (rjkwilson@shaw.ca) by Tuesday, April 24 and join with Rod and Bev Wilson to explore this important subject in our second last Thriving or Surviving session. The last session is May 27, 2018 on the subject of controversy. (Rod Wilson)

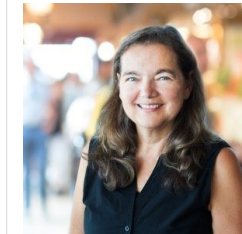

Congratulations Joanne!

Joanne Briault has recently retired from her work at ICBC after 41 years of faithful service, doing a list of jobs too numerous to mention here. She is looking forward to spending more time with her family—including her sweet little grandson. Well done Joanne! Praying for you to enjoy and embrace the freedom of this new season. (Kim Pierrot)

Lynda's Resignation

After serving as CapChurch's Administrative Assistant for almost five years, Lynda Shaw has decided it is time, in her words, to "pass the baton." We receive her resignation with sadness that our staff team will no longer benefit from her organizational skills, prayerful wisdom and servant heart. We also feel deep gratitude for the ways she has loved the church and God so well through her work, and provided stability to our team during a challenging season.

Lynda's work with us will be finished up by early summer; her specific end date depends on several factors including when we are able to find and train her replacement. We appreciate your prayers for Lynda as she asks her heavenly Papa what comes next for her, and also for us as we consider next steps in terms of hiring. (Kim Pierrot)
