Thriving or Surviving: Conflict Sunday, April 29, 2018, 12:15-2:15

Conflict. Some of us have it at work, in our marriage, with our children. Some of us in our extended family, with neighbours, church members, even friends. At times we handle conflict well. At other times we do not know what to do. Some even find conflict frightening. Sign up (rjkwilson@shaw.ca) by Tuesday, April 24 and join with Rod and Bev Wilson to explore this important subject in our second last Thriving or Surviving session. The last session is May 27, 2018 on the subject of controversy. (Rod Wilson)

A Visit to Gitsegukla

Jan Bryant is going to Gitsegukla May 4-6 to represent Cap at Juan's Headstone Feast. There are two needs Cappers can help to meet.

1). Cases of fruit for the feast (purchased at the wholesalers in Terrace). Fruit is approx. $40 a case.

2). New blankets for gifting: If anyone has a new homemade crocheted, knit or quilted blanket they would like to donate it would be greatly appreciated. Bought fleece blankets are also appreciated (ask Barb Atkins for type and store). The plan is to take 6 blankets.

Monetary donations given to Cap is tax receiptable. Thanks for supporting our friends. (Jan Bryant)

Logan Keith Coyle, the newest member of CapChurch was born Monday April 2, weighing in at 6lbs 14oz. Mum Joelle and Dad Lucas could not be prouder or happier. They remain in the hospital for the moment but are looking forward to going home soon.

“Mary Magdalene turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know it was Jesus... supposing him to be the gardener.” (John 20:14,15)

The first person to see the risen Christ was Mary Magdalene. It happened in a garden. At first Mary thought Jesus was the gardener. A logical mistake. Or a prophetic mistake. Or perhaps not a mistake at all. For more on this article, see <https://brianzahnd.com/2016/03/the-gardener/>

Today's message

In a personal encounter with the risen Jesus that has echoes of many others, Peter comes face to face with forgiveness, his abiding love for his Master, and the renewed call to follow Jesus. As with Peter, so with us—failure is the backdrop to the story, love is the central qualification for following, and surrender is the path that leads us forward. (Kim Pierrot)
