Welcome! CapChurch is a community of real, diverse people who are unified by their hope in a real Jesus. We exist to follow Christ with passion and to embrace our neighbour with compassion.

CapChurch's Lenten Series: "God's Dream for the World."

What is God's audacious dream for the world He created? How is God calling us to participate? Where do we begin? As we take a Lenten journey together through the cross of Good Friday to the new life of Easter Sunday, we will also seek to answer some of these big questions. Beginning Sunday February 26, Kim Pierrot and a few special guests will explore the why, where, and how of CapChurch, with a hope for us all to get a glimpse into how we embody God's dream in the places we live, work and learn. (Kim Pierrot)

Holy Spirit, Holy Ghost, or Fuzzy Feelings?
Prepare for February 19, 2017

As we come to the final session in our current preaching series 'Holy Spirit, Holy Ghost, or Fuzzy Feelings' we would like you to be prayerfully considering the following two questions. Next week everyone will have a chance to answer these questions in writing, and others will have an opportunity to express their answers out loud.

1. As you have gone through the biblical material in this series which part has the Holy Spirit used to teach you in a fresh way about Him or His work in your life?
2. When you think about CAP church and where we are at as a community at present, where do you think the Holy Spirit needs to impact us?

Tax Receipts are ready and available for pickup

2016 Charitable Receipts

Your personal 2016 CapChurch tax receipts are available today. Thank you again to you all for your faithful support through the past year.

At this time we would like to remind everyone about the ability to give to CapChurch via monthly Pre-Authorized Debit (PAD). A significant amount of our budget is paid on a monthly basis (ie. staff salaries, and rent), thus, the consistency of PAD giving is a great help. If you feel led to start a new PAD, or increase your current amount, please connect with Cathy or Bryson. In the meantime, we gratefully thank you for your financial support, and we thank God for His continued faithfulness to our congregation. (Cathy Adams and Bryson Milley, Finance Committee)
