

Scripture: Revelation 21:5 “He who was seated on the throne said: I am making everything new!”

announcements

Welcome! CapChurch is a community of real, diverse people who are unified by their hope in a real Jesus. We exist to follow Christ with passion and to embrace our neighbour with compassion.

Prayers for Nashisa

Our brothers and sisters in Nashisa continue to celebrate great progress in education, faith and community but currently are challenged by a devastating drought. Please pray for God’s hand in nourishing their crops and their families. Wele umalayi. (Lynn Perez)

2016 Charitable Receipts

Your receipt for giving to CapChurch in 2016 has been available for several Sunday mornings - after this Sunday, any left will be mailed out, so please pick it up and save us a stamp! With grateful thanks to the people of Cap, and to God for His faithfulness to us as a congregation. (Cathy Adams, bookkeeper)

HubCap

Upcoming HubCap Sunday March 5

Mark your calendars for our next HubCap, this coming Sunday, March 5, 6 pm at the Thomsons. Together, over a leisurely meal, we will experience and explore the idea of “Faithful Presence” that our current sermon series is focusing on. Starting at 6, we will share a simple charcuterie meal. Last names ending in A-K please bring cheese, L-Z cured meat. Please RSVP to kim@capchurch.ca to confirm your attendance and what you are bringing. All ages are welcome! (Kim Pierrot)

CapChurch Annual General Meeting

Sunday April 2

Please note that Cap’s AGM will be a little later this year but will still be a rich time of giving thanks, dreaming about the future and committing ourselves to God and to each other anew. Mark your calendars! Our venue will be the Corrigan Nature House located on the Bird Conservation/Maplewood Mud Flats, North Van. Those who feel like a walk by the water will gather in the parking lot at 3 pm Sunday afternoon. We will be back by 3:45 for the meeting which will begin at 4 pm and last until 6. All are welcome. (Kim Pierrot)

RePlacing Lent

For your Lenten practice, DON’T start an extra activity, don’t even stop doing something! Instead, think of a public place you inhabit regularly— somewhere in your neighbourhood, workplace or school, and think about a routine “non-spiritual” activity you do there. It might be walking your kids to school, taking the bus, grocery shopping, coffee break at work, your lunchtime walk, various errands, going to your local Delany’s, soccer practice...you get the idea. Now for the 40 days of Lent, be there with an intention to allow God to be present to you, and to be present to God and those around you. We will offer you a question to consider each week to guide your practice but the essence of it is in the midst of your daily routine to practice “faithful presence”—an awareness of Father, Son and Spirit with you which in turn allows you to be more fully present to God and to your surroundings. At some point in your week, please take a photo that conveys what the experience was like for you—perhaps a picture of the view or even a selfie while you practiced faithful presence. Email it to our Lenten photo curator Brooke McAllister

(mcallister.brooke@gmail.com), or post it onto Cap’s Facebook page. Each Sunday of Lent we will show some photos you have submitted. This week’s question for you to bring to your Lenten RePlacing: “Who is my neighbour?” (Kim Pierrot)

If you are interested in also using some online devotional resources, here are two that several Cappers have found helpful:

Shrove Tuesday, February 28 : Consider having a few neighbours or Cappers over for a pancake dinner aka “Shrove Tuesday” aka “Mardi Gras.” This is the last day of “fat eating” before the Lenten fast begins. Invite the Pierrots over and we’ll bring the bacon! (Kim Pierrot)

Project Backpack at Mountainside

Denise (teacher at Mountainside SS) & the Social Justice crew are working with Project Backpack again this year to assemble backpacks for homeless youth. This year, they would like to include warm PJ pants. Rather than buying 25 pairs of pants with the funds they have raised, we are hoping some “tailor” Cappers have time to sew pj’s alongside the students and some faculty.

A SEWING DATE: Thursday March 9 at 1pm at Mountainside. Sewing machines are provided. Cosy pajama fabric needed (any fabric collectors out there?) Please contact Kaethe Wright if you are interested kaethe.wright@shaw.ca

Let me introduce you to Joachim. Joachim is a brother who works in the daytime as a residence chaplain at Vancouver General Hospital, and at night at a grocery store. He does this to send money back to his family in Zambia, ultimately hoping to bring them to Canada. As you will read his story, he has not seen his wife and four children in two years. His needs are great, but we can do this. Please read his story by clicking on the link and donate generously. <https://myevent.com/meetingmyfamily>. From David Ducklow, Capper and fellow chaplain in training.

today's message

This morning marks the beginning of our Lenten Series: "God's Dream for the World." This 8-week series seeks to answer three questions: What is God's audacious dream for the world He created? How is God calling us to participate? Where do we begin? This morning, Kim Pierrot begins at the end of the long story—Revelation 21 where God declares: "I am making all things new!" This is God's dream, God's "why", where all of history is heading. Our "why" is to participate with Father, Son and Spirit, who is making all things new in us and through us.
