Welcome to CapChurch!

We are a community faithfully seeking God's shalom (flourishing and wholeness) in every sphere of life with passion for Christ and compassion for neighbour. We hope you find a warm welcome today—both from our good God, and from us.

Nashisa Team is on the Road!

The team (left to right) Andrea Smith, Jan Wilson, Kim Pierrot, Kevin Faw, Isa Purcell, and Margo Sadler will be in Nashisa travelling, visiting, engaging in home visits, praying and participating as the Spirit of God leads. As they requested, please pray for health, safety, God's leading, family care at home and their transition back to Canada and life here. The dates are July 5th to the 19th.

During Pastor Kim Pierrot's time in Nashisa, (July 5-19), John Colpitts and the Elders will be leading and caring for the church.

Summer Series: The Extraordinary in the Ordinary: Encountering God in the Ordinary, Boring Stuff of Life

From June through August we will be looking at the book of Genesis chapters 25-50 with the help of Paul Steven's book "Down To Earth Spirituality" (see excerpts for each sermon topic). Kim, Rod, and several other Cappers will share the teaching. Our hope is that we might find ways in our 'ordinary' experiences of life to encounter our extraordinary God.

July

9 Marriage—Story of Leah Genesis 29:14-30 (speaker: Rod Wilson)

16 Work—Story of Laban Genesis 29:14-20; Genesis 31:10-13 (speaker: John Colpitts)

"Maturity is not something that can be obtained through self-help books, high powered seminars and consumer-oriented religion. It comes only in the long, thick experiences of life, seasoned by some of the hardest and most disappointing experiences, which, if directed Godward, become the crucible for faith formation and holiness. This can happen in our marriages (or singleness); it can also happen in our workplace." p.91

23 Conversion—Story of the God-Man

Genesis 32:26-28 (speaker: Jamie Munday)

"..this part of the Jacob's story brings us to his conversion, or at least one of them, where Jacob comes to himself and God at the same time, and in the process becomes truly God's person." P.103

30 Sex—Story of Dinah Genesis 34 (speaker: Rod Wilson)

"The union to which we are driven is not actually the urge to merge...rather, it is an appetite for communion, mutual immersion, a unity gained not in spite of diversity, but because of it." p.119

considerations

Summers@CapChurch

Our summer Sunday services will be simpler and shorter aiming to start promptly at 10 and to finish at 11. Kids' ministries will continue as usual. We adopted this format last summer and many enjoyed the simplicity of the service and the time for visiting this allowed. Hope you will join us! (Kim Pierrot)

Gitsegukla Trip this summer

Jan will be in Gitsegukla from July 31 to August 4th visiting Myrna, Sam, Nicole and all our friends there. She is flying to Terrace so no physical goods can be transported. If anyone would like to give gift cards for SaveOnFoods or Safeway you can give those to Jan. If you would like to make a donation to CapChurch for Gitsegukla, you can receive a tax donation for that. Thanks and blessings. (Jan Bryant)

MomLife is meeting in the local parks this summer. If you are wanting to enjoy the parks with other moms and their children, see the options in the calendar for July or contact Karen Barre at kvbarre@gmail.com

Christian Summer Camps

Summer camp is often one of the most fun and epic weeks of the year for a child or teenager, as well as a place of transformative faith experiences. You do not have to ask around too many people at Cap before you hear a story of how camp has deeply impacted their life. Each summer, many of our CapChurch Family head to various camps as campers, a volunteers or summer staff. Please keep all of the camps associated with CapChurch and other Christian camps in your prayers this summer. We pray for God to impact lives, give hope, strengthen or build new friendships, provide lasting memories and keep everyone safe coming and going to camp.

Berry Picking Outing

A bunch of Cap families are planning to take our kids to Emma Lea Farms on Saturday July 22nd to pick fresh berries! This is going to be a casual outing, so feel free to invite neighbours and friends. We will be leaving the North Shore @ 8:30am to arrive by 9:30am so it's not too hot returning back in time for kiddos' naps! We are open to providing transportation by renting a couple of passenger vans if people prefer not to drive their own vehicles. If you are interested in joining us, please email Eric asap (e2girardin@gmail.com) with # of people so we can give the farm an idea of how many of us will be coming. For more info on the farm, visit: <http://www.emmaleafarms.com/> (Eric Girardin)

today’s message

“The Extraordinary in the Ordinary”
 All of life’s ‘ordinary’ experiences can be path- ways to God. The patriarch Jacob, whose story we will be following this summer, comes to this realization in the middle of the book of Genesis. Awaking from a holy dream, he remarks: “Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware of it.” (Genesis 28:16) This is our prayer for us this summer, that, like Jacob, we might wake up to our lives as having the possibility for encountering God in the midst of birth, eating, family, sleep, courting, marriage, work, conversion, sex, home, calling, dressing, finishing, and death.

July Sunday at a glance

July Sunday Services:

This newsletter has been produced to cover the month of July. See our list of sermon speakers inside, and our plans for our kids & youth below.

Littles: Care for our 0-2 year olds is provided upstairs with Katrina.

Zoo: Our lively program for our 3-5 year olds will begin upstairs, with lots of outside time planned this summer.

Fresh: For Kids entering Grades 1-6 in September, please join us downstairs in The West Wing for an exciting journey through Exodus exploring how God makes a Way around, over, and through all of the obstacles that get in the way of his plan to include the whole world in his blessing.

Youth: For those entering Grade 7-12 in September, we will be gathering upstairs in The Staff Room on July 9th and 23rd, and remaining in the service on July 16th and 30th.
