Summer Series: Encountering God in the Ordinary, Boring Stuff of Life

From June through August we will be looking at the book of Genesis chapters 25-50 with the help of Paul Steven's book "Down To Earth Spirituality." Kim's Pastor Roadshow: It's never too late!

What a delight it was to meet with many of you in coffee shops across the north shore last month! Big thanks to Sharon Lisette for sending lots of emails, and coordinating 5 weeks of appointments. And thank you to the nearly 40 of you who took an hour out of your day to be with me. Honestly, it has been one of the highlights of my year so far and was so great I plan to do it every year. But you don't have to wait until next May to have coffee with me, or to book me for a home visit, or for a quick chat over your lunch break at work. And you don't need to be having a crisis either. I love to get together with Cappers—especially if we have never connected in person, or if it has been a long while. Feel free to email me at kim@capchurch.ca for us to find a time. (Kim Pierrot)

Congratulations! Perry and Joanne Briault are delighted to announce the birth of their wonderful new grandson, Aceyn Grey Ollinger, weighing 7 lbs 8 oz and 21 inches. He was born May 26 at 4:11 pm to Mr and Mrs.

Courtney and Chris Ollinger who were married March 6. Grandma says he is a sweetie.

Charlotte's Shower and Send-off:

THIS SUNDAY June 4th at 1:30–3:30pm at Tracy Miller's home (see Friendship List for address). We are celebrating Charlotte (Clark) and Alex's upcoming wedding with a shower for Charlotte. You are all invited! See <https://sokindregistry.org/registry/alexandcharlotte>. Charlotte has been vital to the leadership of CapKids in her previous role and most recently, part time with our youth. Charlotte is stepping away from serving our church to join a church closer to their future neighbourhood. We are excited for her and want to bless all that God has for both of them in the future. Please speak today to Allison Grice if you would like to join the event or further questions. (donations of appetizers would be welcome!)

Sunday Flowers:

Can you imagine a day without music or art? What about a day without colour or flowers? As God gave flowers for us to enjoy—we want to bring a bit of that into our worship area on Sundays. If you feel inclined to bring flowers (and either take them away or give them to someone after the service), please contact Jocelyn Pedder at jopdah@telus.net.

today's message

“The Extraordinary in the Ordinary”
 All of life's 'ordinary' experiences can be pathways to God. The patriarch Jacob, whose story we will be following this summer, comes to this realization in the middle of the book of Genesis. Awaking from a holy dream, he remarks: “Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware of it.” (Genesis 28:16) This is my prayer for us this summer, that, like Jacob, we might wake up to our lives as having the possibility for encountering God in the midst of birth, eating, family, sleep, courting, marriage, work, conversion, sex, home, calling, dressing, finishing, and death. This week, we reflect on the experience of “birth.” (Kim Pierrot)
