In Flanders Fields
by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead: Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved: and now we lie
In Flanders fields

Take up our quarrel with the foe
To you, from failing hands, we throw
The torch: be yours to hold it high
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields

Today's message

“Peace” (Philippians 4:2-9)

Peace is not a nebulous concept but one that needs to characterize our relationships with others and with circumstances, as well as our thoughts and feelings. In bringing these areas of angst to God we find out He is the God of peace who will bring shalom to our inner and outer life.

This Sunday at a glance

THIS SUNDAY MORNING, Rod Wilson will be speaking on “Peace.” Robbie Ohlhauser & Team will lead us in worship.
